THINGS TO KNOW:

- Spread the word! Invite your friends! All of Moretz (great for a multi family, youth group) Cabins in cabin village and bunk rooms in Founders (also a great youth group option) are available. Share this letter with friends who might enjoy a few days in God's fabulous fall creation!
- COST FOR THE RETREAT: Weekend Stay: $100 (youth and adults) $60 (children 3-12)
Saturday Only: $35 (includes lunch and dinner)
Sky Park ROPES COURSE Adventure: $40 per person
Registration includes all the onsite activities (except for ropes course,) lodging and food.
(Please provide any information on dietary constraints when you register.)
- LODGING is provided in our beautiful and comfortable cabins. MORETZ CABIN (when you cross the creek and come onto the site, follow the signs and the lower right fork and then take the middle of the 3 prong fork at the end of that road) has a small kitchen, living area, beds for 30 (4 separate bunk rooms, with a full bed in each and private bath. CABIN VILLAGE (when you cross the creek and come onto the site, follow the signs and the upper left fork will wind you up the site, the next fork you come to, take the lower right fork that will bring you to MCKNIGHT PAVILLION to check in) we have 3 cabins with a queen bed and mini fridge/microwave in addition to 4 bunks (first come, first serve) our remaining cabins have 5 twin over twin bunks. All cabins have a private bath.
- WHAT TO BRING: Bedding (sleepings bags/pillow or twin bedding) and towels, comfortable, multi layered clothes for the temperatures that week, a good raincoat is always wise, good hiking shoes/fitness shoes for ropes and other activities, extra snacks and drinks for non-group times, free time activities (crafts, books, jigsaw puzzles- we have lots of board games, a dvd player for movies), toiletries, regular medicine that you take, a day pack, reusable water bottle and flashlight or headlamp are quite helpful, bring a camera if you're so inclined,
